

National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners has announced that Alzheimer's and Dementia Staff Education Week will start February 14, 2010. In honor of NCCDP's Alzheimer's and Dementia Staff Education Week they are offering a free tool kit and free in-services for staff educators to educate their staff on Alzheimer's and dementia. The tool kit will be available for download beginning in November through March.

For more information, please visit <http://www.nccdp.org/staff-education-week.htm>.