

True/False Quiz: Creating Always Available Activity Kits

Instructions: Read each statement carefully. Circle True if the statement is correct, or False if the statement is incorrect.

1. ____ An Always Available Activity Kit is a collection of recreational supplies that can be accessed by staff, families, volunteers, and residents. (True / False)
2. ____ The purpose of these activity kits is only to replace scheduled group activities. (True / False)
3. ____ Activity kits can help reduce agitation and boredom for residents. (True / False)
4. ____ The only appropriate location for an activity kit is the activity room. (True / False)
5. ____ Folding laundry, word games, and sorting activities are examples of items that can be included in an activity kit. (True / False)
6. ____ Soft sensory or tactile items should not be included in an activity kit for safety reasons. (True / False)
7. ____ It is important to discuss activity kits with the nursing team to ensure they can be used safely. (True / False)
8. ____ Activity kits should only be used by staff and should not be accessible to residents or families. (True / False)
9. ____ Activity kits can be placed in common areas, the nurses' station, and even the reception desk for easy access. (True / False)
10. ____ Providing training to the care team on how to use activity kits can help ensure they are used effectively. (True / False)