

Answer Key – Leadership Basics in Memory Care

1. False – Leadership goes beyond managing tasks; it involves inspiring and guiding a team.
2. True – John Maxwell emphasizes that leadership requires the ability to inspire others.
3. True – Strong leadership ensures quality care and a positive environment in memory care.
4. True – Servant leadership prioritizes the needs of others, empowering them to perform well.
5. False – Effective leaders communicate the mission and purpose to keep their teams motivated.
6. True – Daily meetings help keep staff aligned with goals and improve communication.
7. False – A good leader fosters a positive and supportive culture in addition to enforcing policies.
8. True – Mentorship programs help reinforce best practices and support new staff.
9. True – Key leadership qualities include integrity, adaptability, and strong communication.
10. True – Team-building and recognition contribute to a motivated and cohesive staff.