

Test Questions for Vascular Dementia, Lewy Body Dementia, & Frontotemporal Dementia

Name:

Date:

VASCULAR DEMENTIA

1. Vascular dementia frequently presents itself with other dementias. Yes
2. Vascular dementia can occur as a result of cerebrovascular disease. Yes
3. There are never cases of a patient having vascular dementia and depression at the same time. No

LEWY BODY DEMENTIA

4. The abnormal microscopic deposits of protein in the nerve cells are called lewy bodies.
5. Lewy Body dementia is often found in damaged regions in the brains of persons with Parkinson's disease.
6. Dementia begins within 12 months of the appearance of Parkinson's-like symptoms.
7. Patients may present with visual hallucinations.

FRONTOTEMPORAL DEMENTIA

8. The tau protein becomes altered and bundles up into liquid that rejuvenates nerve cells.
No
9. Frontotemporal dementia causes weakening of muscles, swallowing, breathing, and can diminish speech.
Yes
10. There is strong evidence that current anti-dementia medications are effective in patients with FTD.
No