

Test Questions for Vascular Dementia, Lewy Body Dementia, & Frontotemporal Dementia

Name:

Date:

VASCULAR DEMENTIA

1. Vascular dementia frequently presents itself with other dementias. Yes No
2. Vascular dementia can occur as a result of cerebrovascular disease. Yes No
3. There are never cases of a patient having vascular dementia and depression at the same time. Yes No

LEWY BODY DEMENTIA

4. The abnormal microscopic deposits of protein in the nerve cells are called _____.
5. Lewy Body dementia is often found in damaged regions in the brains of persons with _____.
6. Dementia begins within _____ of motor features of parkinsonism.
7. Patient's may present with _____ hallucinations.

FRONTOTEMPORAL DEMENTIA

8. The tau protein becomes altered and bundles up into liquid that rejuvenates nerve cells.
Yes No
9. Frontotemporal dementia causes weakening of muscles, swallowing, breathing, and can diminish speech.
Yes No
10. There is strong evidence that current anti-dementia medications are effective in patients with FTD.
Yes No